This block contains faint, scattered musical notation across the lower two-thirds of the page. It consists of various square neumes and diamond-shaped flags, some of which are clearly visible while others are faded or partially obscured by ink bleed-through from the reverse side of the leaf.
